FIRST STEPS TAKEN TO RELIEVE JAM AS URGED BY HOLDEN

Pellowing promptly on the approvation Director General of Rathroads Mc Adoc of Hale Holden's report on the traffic congestion in the District, the first actual relief steps were taken to-

Acting upon the request of the Director General that an enumeration of the hauling equipment in Washington be made. Commissioner Brownlow today instructed Major Pullman to confer with R. P. Andrews, president of the Retail Merchants' Association, over the details of the enumeration. The enumeration of trucks and equipment in the District is to be folequipment in the Postrict is to be fol-lowed by the operation of the pool recommended by Hale Holden. The Washington police are to make the enumeration. The plans for the haul-enumeration. The plans for the hauf-ing census are being worked out by Andrews and Major Pullman. Operation of the pool of equipment will begin as soon as the extent of the facilities is known. The conduct of the matter has been left in the hands of the merchants by the direc-

Sam D. Hines, colored, and his wife.
Lucille Hines, both accused of selling liquor, were represented by Attorney Robert I. Miller when their case came up in court this morning. The case against the woman was dismissed. Hines pleaded guilty and was given the smallest sentence possible under the law, thirty days in jail and a fine of $300. In default of payment of the fine, he will serve thirty days additional.

Le Roy C. Berry, a sailor on duty at the navy yard, was arrested last night in a lunchroom in Ninth street northeast. He pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness, admitting that he had "sassed a cop" while intoxicated. He was given a suspended sentence to allow him to return to duty at the yard, where he will be punished by the naval authorities.

Calvin Reed, sixty years old, a veteran of the civil war, was given a suspended sentence on the same charge. He is an inmate of the Old Soldiers' Home at Hampton, Va., and was sway from the home on ten days' leave.
